Human Trafficking in Northern Virginia - Eat, Pray, Learn!

Join us in Wright Hall on June 9 at 8:30 - 10:15 for a delicious, free breakfast prepared by the United Methodist Men and a special presentation about the "other traffic problem" in Northern Virginia: human trafficking. Our featured speaker will be Barbara Amaya: resident of Arlington, survivor of the sex trade, and advocate for change. Barbara fell victim to human trafficking at age thirteen and was held captive for eight years. She will share her story, discuss the local impact of modern slavery, offer ways for people to take action, and answer audience questions. Because this is an adults-only event, childcare will be provided for 1st - 5th graders from 8:30 – 9:30 prior to Sunday School (9:30 – 10:15). You can RSVP by completing the form below and placing it in the offering plate. You may also call the church office at 703-256-8330 or email your response to june9breakfast@gmail.com by or before June 5. Be sure to indicate your childcare requirements for 1st - 5th graders with your RSVP.
