The youth of Annandale United Methodist Church will be celebrated and recognized on Youth

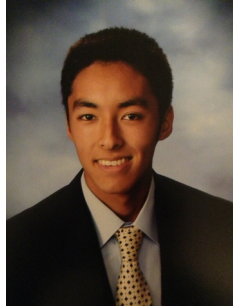

Sunday, June 9 (one service at 10:30 a.m.). Special congratulations go to AUMC young people who have or will soon be graduating from high school and college!

High School Graduates

Robert "Bobby" Evans is graduating from Annandale High School, where he has been a member of the Future Business Leaders of America. He is an active member of The Grid at AUMC, and participated in last year's mission trip to Mississippi. Robert plans to attend George Mason University to study Computer Game Design.

Evan Ogata is graduating from J.E.B. Stuart High School. He has been a part of AUMC's youth since middle school and has participated in its activities such as the Pittsburgh Project and Mississippi mission trips. After graduating, Evan plans on attending the University of Maryland where he will study in the Clark School of Engineering with hopes of becoming an environmental engineer. Evan hopes that he will still have enough time continue playing golf and the tuba.

Leila Soulen is graduating from Annandale High School, where she has been in the IB Program. Here at AUMC, Leila has been a member of the youth and adult choirs. She will be attending the University of Virginia next year, and while her major is undecided, she said she "will definitely continue to sing and read, and (am) hoping to find a Celtic instrumental group to jam with."

The VINE

Vacation Bible School, June 24

June 24-28, from 9 a.m. – noon. The theme for this summer's VBS is "The Vine" from John 15: 5, "I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing," with a concentration on the Fruits of the Spirit as named in Galatians 5: 22: "Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Faithfulness, Gentleness, and Self Control".

During VBS, children will make gifts to share and crafts to take home that will remind them of the Fruits of the Spirit. Children will participate in 10 centers throughout the week with two scripture-focused story times each day, as well as music and themed snacks daily. The VBS service project will be planting vegetable gardens for the community at Safe Haven and raising money to furnish classroom space for children in Cambine, Mozambique. The overall VBS project is a trellis, bench, and vine for the courtyard. VBS Celebration is Sunday, June 30.

Donations are needed for VBS craft activities. If you can provide any of the following, please bring the items to the Atrium and look for specially-marked boxes.

- 100 Quaker Oats chewy chocolate chip granola bars
- 7 boxes of graham crackers
- Children's belts – 3rd graders size and larger (to use for a fun game during rec time)
- 50 pairs of children's-size tube or crew socks
- Rolls of duct tape – in colors or animal prints (for covering cans for take home game)
- 15 oz. cans – clean, empty, labels removed from the outside
- One large bag of rice (for fun take home game)
- Clorox disinfecting wipes (35 count) for cleaning yoga mats.

Word of Thanks

Grace and peace in the name of our Savior!

At this writing many are preparing for the gathering of delegates for the 231st session of the Virginia Annual Conference in Hampton, Virginia. There they will sing, they will pray, they will study the Bible, and they will attend to the ministry we share in common as Virginia United Methodists. I look forward to greeting long time friends and colleagues and meeting new ones. The fellowship is sweet, the worship divine.

While I will be involved in several facets of the work of the Conference (I am honored to have been asked to preach for the memorial service and to speak to the United Methodist Men's breakfast), I am more excited about hearing how our work is progressing in places around the Commonwealth and the world; I am ecstatic about witnessing the ordination of our new, brilliant young clergy who will help shape our future – many of whom I have had the privilege of teaching along the way through our Conference's Licensing School for new ministers.

It will also be a joy to be affirmed in the re-appointment of Cynthia and Eduardo as ministers to the AUMC community as the Bishop reads the assignments on the last day of the Conference. I am humbled by the trust given by all of you to continue in the work of ministry with you.

Above all, I continue to be thankful to God for the tender mercy of the divine call to preach the Gospel, love God's people, and share in a common vision of a transformed world. I look forward to another year of service with you.

Yours for a Vital Witness to Christ,

Clarence

Craft supply donations are needed for the Methodist Conference's "All God's Children Camp" this summer. Rick and Judy Hampton will be leading the arts and crafts program and welcome donations of old, adult only, blue jeans, and pop tops from drink cans (not the entire can). Boxes for collection are near the coat racks by the Atrium, or give them directly to Rick or Judy Hampton. Participants at this camp are children aged 6-13, with a parent who is (or has been) incarcerated.

CDC Teacher Honored: One of AUMC's Child Development Center teachers was honored recently as an Exemplary Inclusive Practices Teacher by Fairfax County Public Schools. She was one of nine teachers countywide receiving the award and was nominated by AUMC's Child Find specialist. AUMC's Child Development Center was also recognized for its support of inclusiveness.

Mission Opportunity: AUMC is sponsoring a mission trip to Brenton, W.Va (Wyoming County) Sept. 22-28 with the Appalachian Service Project (ASP). The focus will be relational ministry and home repairs. Contact John Clarke by phone, text or email 703-606-6464 (cell or text) 703-642-3836 (home) or clarkeh1@gmail.com). Commitments needed by June 20 with a nonrefundable deposit of $250.

The Race Away Hunger food collection drive for Rising Hope was a roaring success! The Pasta Parrots prevailed with 380 items, followed by Meaty Monkeys with 338, Paper Pandas-298, Veggie Vipers- 232, Soupy Sharks-230, Tomato Tigers-219, Fruity Flamingos-213, and Beany Bears-180! We are all on the winning team in Racing Away Hunger! AUMC collected over 2,000 items for Rising Hope! Thanks to everyone for a GREAT RACE!

Calling all AUMC Women! We need you! As I am sure you will recall, our men did an outstanding job of leading us in worship for Mother's Day last month! Well, now is your chance to shine! On Father's Day, June 16, we are going to give our men in the Adult Choir the morning off and FILL our loft with the women of AUMC! If you have ever sung in your life, this is YOUR chance! We will have two rehearsals for this time together, starting on Wednesday, June 12 from 8 - 8:45 p.m. and we want YOU!!! Prior choir experience is NOT required, just a willing heart for God and a desire to sing with a great group of ladies! We hope to see you on June 12 in the Choir Room at 8 for rehearsal!
