 Leader: I was glad when they said to me, "Let us go to the house of the Lord!"
 People: We gather with gladness in the Lord's house on this Children's Sabbath day.

Leader: We gather to pray with our words and our lives so that all of God's children will one day know peace and economic security.
 All: We gather in God's name, who claims us all as kin, to speak out and seek peace and justice for the sake of all God's children.

+OPENING PRAYER
 Loving God, we, your children, long for the day when your shalom is the dominant culture. We long for the day when we would turn swords into plowshares. Liberating God, we, your children, long for the day when we treat each other with equality and justice. Merciful God, we confess that we have not always been willing participants of your mandate for peace and justice. Redeeming God, make us your peacemakers with every small and large act toward your justice. With you, O God, we shall work together for the day of shalom for which we long. Amen.
