+OPENING PRAYER

Gracious God, You have called us to live in community with You as members of the body of Christ. We confess that we live in a society that worships the individual and neglects the communal, for we are taught by our culture to be self-sufficient. We confess that we fear being dependent on others. We are afraid of being an inconvenience to others and afraid of exposing our weaknesses and vulnerability. Likewise, too often we shun others who may need our care and attention. We fear that they will inconvenience us, and we turn aside from their brokenness and cries for mercy. Gracious God, do not forsake the work of your hands. Do not let us be conformed to this world's way of thinking and relating to each other. Transform our hearts to love one another and teach us to live together as brothers and sisters in the unity of Your Spirit. Unite us in community through the worship of Your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.
