+CALL TO WORSHIP Rev. Carrillo

Leader: It was you who formed my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.

People: On this Children's Sabbath, we gather to praise God who created every wonderful child.

Leader: People were bringing little children to Jesus in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.' And he took them up in his arms, laid hands on them, and blessed them.

People: We gather to follow Christ who cherished the children others would keep away.

Leader: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.

People: We gather to be moved by the Spirit that we might be partners in the end of oppression.

All: Come, let us worship God – Creator, Christ, and Holy Spirit!

Events at AUMC!

Welcome visitors: Today we are celebrating the Children’s Sabbath. The national observation of Children’s Sabbath, sponsored by the Children’s Defense Fund, is a way for faith communities to celebrate children as sacred gifts, and provides the opportunity for houses of worship to renew and live out their moral responsibility to care, protect, and advocate for all children. We pray that something in our worship today – the message, the music, the fellowship - will touch you, and we invite you to come back and worship with us again. Join us for fellowship with coffee and light refreshment in Wright Hall, directly across the Atrium from the sanctuary.

Members, please pick up mail in the Atrium today!

October is Pastor Appreciation Month and AUMC is blessed to have three wonderful pastors! Please let them know how much they mean to you.
