+OPENING PRAYER

Creator God, your presence in our lives is ever so palpable, yet we rarely acknowledge you. Holy Spirit you name each of us as children of God, yet we rebel against you and one another. Jesus Christ the redeemer of our lives you seek us out even in the darkest day. For all the times where we have run from you, we ask forgiveness. We long to be in relationship with you and with one another, keep us close even when we go off track. Stay with us God of light and make clear the path we walk, the path you called us to. In the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, Amen.
