Leader: Hear, O People of God, The Lord is our God, the Lord alone.

People: We shall love the Lord our God with all our heart, and with all our soul, and with all our might.

Leader: Keep these words that I am commanding you today in your heart.

People: We will recite them to our children and talk about them when we are at home and when we are away, when we lie down and when we rise.

Leader: Bind them as a sign on your hand, fix them as an emblem on your forehead,

All: We will write them on the doorposts of our house and on our gates so that we do not forget the Lord our God

+OPENING PRAYER

Gracious God, you have called us to be the church, to live out our Resurrection faith. You have asked us to place our trust in you and to bring to all the good news of your saving love. But sometimes we give our faith a back seat to the troubles of the world. Sometimes we alienate others instead of drawing them to you. Clear our spirits of the clutter of everyday living. Help us to be open always to your word and your love. Challenge us to move in directions of peace and hope for all people. These things we pray in the name of our risen Lord, Amen.

Join us for refreshments and coffee in Wright Hall immediately after worship service. Next Sunday, May 24, is Pentecost Sunday and everyone is invited to wear red, orange or yellow clothing. Pentecost marks the end of the "Great Fifty Days" of the Easter Season (Pentecost means "the 50th day" in Greek) and the beginning of the commemorations of the early church.
