I Know the Plans I Have for You!

Grace and peace in the name of our Savior!

"4Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: 5Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. 6Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. 7But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare." (Jeremiah 29:4-7)

These words were sent to a generation of people who had been sent into exile; they had lost home, lost possessions, lost family members, lost the Temple, lost their identity, and lost faith in God. Their initial expectation was that their exile would last but a few years, but this word from the prophet offers that their time in this alien place will be extended.

Something strange happens when multiple generations inhabit an alien land. While it will never be home for those who are the first generation, the succeeding generations, "gen 1.5 or gen 2," often become hybrids, become familiar with the culture, become at home with the language and rhythms of the place they find themselves in.

For many who wear the mantle of Christian, this world can be a foreign and hostile place. We wish for a world which is the perfection of God's intention. But that is not what this particular prophetic word says to us. Instead the prophet asks that we seek the welfare of the city or the context in which we find ourselves.

That is resonant with our missional call to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. That is resonant with our stated intention of offering Christ to a new generation. That is resonant with our stated intention of helping our newly arrived neighbors become fully participating and contributing members of the community. Above all, it is resonant with the necessity of continuing to grow in Christ and deepening our discipleship.

As we begin a new year, I am full of excitement for the concrete plans we have developed to make those intentions a reality; I am further excited about the many new persons in our faith community who are stepping up, stepping in, and finding new and creative ways to turn those visions into an actual picture of God's preferred future.

The Holy Spirit Retreat will be held at AUMC Jan. 22-23, and everyone is welcome. Who is the Holy Spirit? What does the Holy Spirit do? How can I be filled with the Holy Spirit? Join AUMC pastors and staff as they explore these questions in a spirit-filled retreat and discuss the meaning and significance of the Holy Spirit in our lives. Based on the Alpha Course, this church-wide event for both youth and adults will inspire us for the new year! The Retreat will be held at AUMC beginning Friday at 6:30 p.m. and ending Saturday at 3:30 p.m. Registration fee is $20 (includes meals and materials). Child care will be available for children ages 1-5 with advance registration. Cost: $5 per child. Register at www.annandale-umc.org/holyspiritretreat.

AUMC's Women's Retreat is coming up fast - April 29, 30 and May 1 - and spaces are filling up. The total payment is due Feb. 7.
