A Memorial Day Tribute will take place on Sunday, May 29, during the Sunday School hour in the AUMC Cemetery. Members of the congregation and all others are invited to witness and participate in the ceremony. American flags will be implanted on the grave sites of the 37 veterans interred in the cemetery. Those attending the 8:30 worship will process from the Sanctuary to the cemetery. All who are participating or witnessing will meet at the crest of cemetery hill. Memorial Day is an appropriate time to become acquainted with the dignity, beauty, and historical richness of our cemetery grounds, which contain the grave sites of military veterans dating from the Civil War. It is also the final earthly resting place of loved ones, friends, and many members of our church's founding families. For details about the event or the AUMC Cemetery, contact Cemetery Manager Mike Moser at 703-591-1210 or mmoser@annandale-umc.org.
