+CALL TO WORSHIP Rev. Johnson-Oliver
 Leader: We come to this place to worship God together.
People: We come seeking God's healing and hope.
 Leader: We have come to the right place. God awaits us.
People: Even though we have not always followed the ways God would have us go;
 Leader: God still loves, forgives, and is present to us.
ALL: Praise be to the patient, steadfast love of God. Amen.

+OPENING PRAYER
 We like directions, Lord. We want an owner's manual; a guidebook; a how-to guide for our faith. Rules and regulations, time constraints seem to dominate our lives and we forget the most basic understanding for our faith; that is our relationship to God through you. You have drawn us here this day, to be healed, to listen, to be encouraged in our service to Your world. We lift up a host of issues and situations over which we feel powerless. Remind us again that your power is sufficient for our needs, and help us leave them in your loving care. Help us to place our trust and confidence in you, and encourage us to serve you more fully. We ask these things in Jesus' name. AMEN.
