All Youth in Youth Room for Sunday School Today

No Ramp or Youth Choir until Feb. 12

New Series @ Ramp Begins Feb. 12... There's something pretty amazing about being in love, isn't there? The butterflies in your stomach. The dreamy gazes. No wonder so many of us are so in love with being in love. But if you look around—in the media, at school, in life—we've taken what God created and twisted it, morphed it and configured it into something it was never meant to be—an obsession. When romantic relationships become an obsession, balance goes out the window. And sometimes we even forget who we are. There's got to be a healthier way to do this. There's got to be another way than being so lovesick.

Great is your faithfulness, Lord God Almighty. Send your Spirit among us and be with those who are not here. Bring us a spirit of comfort and of holiness. Teach us to be aware of the needs of others and aware of our own spiritual needs. Gracious and loving God, we come before you with hearts full of praise and thanksgiving for your undeserved gifts of grace and mercy. We are filled with awe over such blessings. Help us, O God, to use this time of worship to be thankful for the blessings we experience; to confess where we fall short in our care of and respect for one another and our land, and to draw upon your wisdom and strength as we seek to be Spirit-empowered followers of Jesus Christ. This we pray in Jesus' name. Amen.
