New series starts next week...One of the most memorable stories in the Bible is the feeding of the 5,000. It was when Jesus took something small—a few loaves of bread and some fish—and miraculously fed thousands of hungry people. When we look at this miracle, we tend to see what happened as the end of the story—as the only thing that really mattered. But for Jesus, this miracle—and every miracle that He ever did—was about more than just the display of power. It was a sign pointing towards something bigger. Come to Ramp next week to hear how miracles like this point us back to Christ. See you there!!

+CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: We are blessed when we hunger for justice and thirst for reconciliation.

People: Our souls are nourished by God's hope and grace.

Leader: We are blessed when we grieve over the brokenness of the world...

People: ...choosing, as God does, to be with those who are weak and powerless.

Leader: We are blessed when we become God's fools...

All: ...willing to do what is right and good, not what is easy.

+OPENING PRAYER

The hills sing your hopes, and the valleys echo your dreams, Holy God, of a world where we catch sight of you in the innocent hearts of children; where we listen to the wisdom of souls willing to be weak; where we find the home we long for in your heart's brokenness. Teach our hearts to be generous to the poor, love kindness more than we do power, and be heirs of creation's grace. When we walk hand-in-hand with the humble-hearted, we are in step with you; when we share a picnic of hope and joy with the forgotten of the world, we follow you up the hill of faithfulness. Wisdom of Weakness, help us bring your hopeful foolishness to a world in need of healing. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Easter is coming! Before you know it, it will be Sunday, March 31, and we will celebrate the resurrection of our Lord! Last year, we invited anyone who wanted to join in singing the "Hallelujah Chorus" to come join the choir. It was a wonderful beginning to a new tradition. So, if you have ever sung this song before, we invite you to come up during our final hymn on Easter morning (8:30 and 11 a.m. services) and we will "raise our voices" in singing a classic together as one great, massed choir.

Brazil is one of six Lenten Mission Projects that need our support. For the last seven years, AUMC has sent mission teams to Brazil as part of the Shade and Fresh Water Project. Our teams have traveled to Sao Paulo, Fortaleza, Manaus and Boa Vista. This year, our team goes to Belo Horizonte. The Shade and Fresh Water Project creates a safe environment for children who have no place to go after school. The program provides shelter, a free meal and Christian education. $10,000 raised through our Lenten offerings will be used to add a second floor to a classroom building. Please consider making a Lenten gift in the designated envelopes.

Books are available for the Lenten Study 2013. The Jesus I Never Knew by Philip Yancey won the Gold Medallion Book of the Year Award and examines three fundamental questions: who Jesus was, why he came, and what he left behind. Visit the Lenten Study table in Wright Hall before/after Sunday worship to learn more and to purchase the book.

Brown Bag Lunch makers needed Thursdays through March, 12 noon at Immanuel campus. The lunches are for the Bailey's Homeless Shelter. Help is also needed with food distribution every Thursday, 5 – 7 p.m. For more information call Betsy Clevenger, 703-425-6424.

Going Nuts: A few bags of delicious pecans are still available and are being sold in Wright Hall following Sunday worship service. Proceeds support UMW mission projects.

Lost and found: if you are missing a dish or pan that may have been left in the Wright Hall kitchen, check there and please pick it up as soon as possible. There is also a lost and found collection in the church office that includes a few coats, hats and other clothing. The office is open from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. weekdays. Items left in lost and found for more than two weeks will be given away.

Sunday morning opportunities: Would you like to become more involved with worship services at Annandale United Methodist Church? Service opportunities are available for all ages, from children through adult. Volunteers are needed to serve as acolytes, crucifers and ushers during worship, to assist the Alter Guild and Flower Ministry to prepare for worship services, and to take communion to homebound members. For more information, contact the church office at jkitzmiller@annandale-umc.org or call 703-256-8330.

Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper was a success! We raised $614 to support the food ministries at Poe Middle School and weekly food distribution at the Immanuel campus. Thank you to the United Methodist Men and Children's Ministry volunteers. Thanks to everyone who came and ate and helped raise money for hungry children!
